this work is a series of sermons produced by emeritus professor hans mol and based on biblical texts the commentaries of John Calvin on these texts and on Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion. Mol is Australia's pre-eminent scholar in the sociology of religion, particularly in Australia. His 1971 volume Religion in Australia was the first attempt at statistical analysis of religion in Australia, which was also internationally significant. Parallel to Mol's interest in the sociology of religion has been his interest in Calvin. Indeed, the theological basis of his life has been as a Calvinist. Here in this volume he brings both of these interests together. His sermons preached over the years in Canberra seek to apply the teachings of Calvin to a world view in which the scientific study of religion and indeed the wider study of sociology are of central significance. In these sermons he succeeds considerably. In this volume is a substantial contribution to scholarship in that the combination of these two factors has only rarely been attempted. Thus the volume has originality and will have enduring value. It is especially appropriate that it should be published at this time in preparation for the 500th anniversary of Calvin's birth 1509-2009.

It's a battle of good vs. evil and hero vs. villain, but in the end, only an ageless wonder holds the key to survival.

I remember the moment I walked away from what I thought my dream was from a mission that was for others but somehow happened to be centered around me. My glory and my accomplishments. I remember the feeling of shame, guilt, and disappointment that came over me from losing that title. God pulled me into isolation, out of the limelight, and it was in that dark yet illuminated season that He spoke to me. Daughter, write through this time. God was reinventing me through an awakening to many truths about my faith, my mindset, and my overall health. This book invites readers on a journey with God to discover their true fulfillment through alignment with Christ. Even in the times when life doesn't make sense, when we don't have the answers, or maybe when we think we have it all figured out through alignment, we can find God in every piece of our story, orchestrating it for good. I pray this book inspires a new hope in you, whether you are in the valley or on a mountaintop. I believe the Holy Spirit will transcend like a dove off of the pages and speak to you. However He feels you need it, you will find gentle nudges, deep inspiration, guided reflections, and transformational awakening written between these two covers. Dive in to begin or further your alignment journey. 1
